On motion by Mr. Teackle,
Said resolution was amended by inserting the following preamble to the resolution.

Whereas, Robert Mills, the architect who was employed by the Sculptor Causici, with whom the managers of the Washington Monument had contracted to complete the statue, and place it upon the monument at his own expense, who it appears by a letter of the President of the said managers to the treasurer of the western shore, bearing date on the 4th January, 1830, received $1500 for that service, has relinquished in writing all claim for further remuneration on that account—Therefore,

The said resolution was then read the second time as amended, and assented to.

On motion by Mr. Handy,

The yeas and nays were ordered, and appeared as follows:—
